Report to our Community

Message from the Board

On behalf of United Way's Board of Directors, I'm pleased to present you with the 2014-15 annual report.

This is our opportunity to report back to you – our community – about what we have achieved through the contributions made possible by the generosity of thousands of donors in this city.

Through your support, United Way's work can be seen in all 107 neighbourhoods across Ottawa. The funds invested go directly to help some of cities most vulnerable people including at-risk children and youth, seniors, new Canadians and people with disabilities, as well as people facing crises, mental health and addiction issues and youth who are homeless.

Our 2014-15 campaign reminded donors that they don't need a phone booth and a cape to be a hero. In an era of self-promotion and selfies, today's hero just needs the courage to be selfless and to give.

This year, we challenged Ottawa to think of the young man who lives on the street, the child who has nowhere to go after school, the woman with a disability who needs help finding work – and to put their dollars to work where they are needed most and where they will have the greatest impact.

Through our research, we know where the greatest need exists and how to invest donor dollars locally to have the greatest impact to the health of our city. We called on the community to be a hero and help change someone's life.

Thanks to your support, you changed thousands of lives in 2014-15 and for that our community is grateful. Your gift to United Way made a lasting difference in the lives of people right here in Ottawa.

As a result of this campaign, we will help change the lives of 57,000 people in our community over the coming year – a phenomenal achievement.

Everyone at United Way – our volunteers, partners, donors, employees and other supporters – are committed to building an organization the people in Ottawa who need it most. To do this, we collaborate closely with front-line agencies, governments and other funders. We focus our efforts in evidence-based solutions proven to change lives and to make a lasting difference in improving our society.

In this Annual Report, we give you a closer look at the people whose lives have been changed by United Way's acts of compassion, dedication and support. These are heroic acts that are changing lives.

Together, we are improving lives every day. We are building a stronger, safer and healthier community. We are creating one Ottawa that is great for everyone who calls our nation's capital home.

Sincerely,

Heroes are all around us

Heroes come from all walks of life – be it a donor, a front-line worker, a volunteer. They give back, speak up and take action to help create lasting change in our community. Here are some of the heroes that helped make 2014-15 such a success.

GROWING UP GREAT

George Gaty, CEO of Andridge, an Ottawa-based real estate investment company, has committed $138,000 over three years to support a newly enhanced homework club for kids in the Sandy Hill and Strathcona neighbourhood.

BELONGING TO COMMUNITY

Our investment in stronger neighbourhoods has helped more than 10,000 residents take on active community roles and together they have volunteered a total of 17,000 hours in their communities.

Guy Clairoux helped his community by helping to build stronger, safer neighbourhood for all. A hero in the eyes of his community, Guy has come a long way from his past.

Watch Guy's story to learn more:

As a direct result of your contribution to United Way, a total of 19 programs that help seniors remain independent and stay active in our community received support. More than 8956 seniors were served by Successful Aging programming in Ottawa.

Bill Schermer is 92 years old and a regular participant in the Rural Ottawa South Support Services' (ROSSS) day program. He couldn't do it without the volunteers and staff – everyday heroes in our community.

TURNING LIVES AROUND

Through our investment in project step, more than 5,000 students have accessed school-based addictions counseling – 92% of those students completed the school year and 75% of participants reduced or stopped using one or more drugs in less than one school year.

See what champion, Vern White has to say about the success of project step.

You are an everyday hero to Alicia. To her there were so many people who helped her turn her life around. See how this young women was able to overcome serious drug issues and raise her child.

Watch Alicia's story to learn more:

Our volunteers are heroes

Thank you also to the volunteers that work with us to make our community better. Whether you're a volunteer at a workplace, sit on a committee or give your time speaking on behalf of the United Way, we're grateful for the everyday heroes like you.

In 2014-15, we also recognize 34 heroes in our city with Community Builder Awards and Community Builder of the Year Awards for their volunteer work that helps make our city better for everyone. Our highest honour – Community Builder of the Year – was bestowed upon the Vered Family for their legacy of involvement in our community.

Heroes are Donors like you

Donors give generously to United Way and help make a difference in our community. They are heroes in their own right. To us, it doesn't matter the size of the contribution it's how we use donors' gifts to achieve the greatest impact.

Thousands of donors gave generously to United Way through workplace campaigns and other events including the Nordstrom Gala, Mark's Race to the Finish, Schmoozefest and our Breakfast about youth homelessness. In 2014, Esri Canada and the Canadian Security Intelligence Service were recognized as top workplace campaigns.

We are grateful for every contribution and it will go toward building a safer, stronger community for all.

The Work of Heroes

Our success in 2014-15 would not be possible without the support of everyday heroes like our partners that work so hard to help advance our community’s priority goals. This includes partners involved in front-line work, those involved in our Community-Wide Initiatives, Targeted Community Investments and strategic investments.

It’s through donors’ support we can show you what we collectively achieved to advance our priority goals in the community.

PROGRESS AND HIGHLIGHTS

Through United Way’s strategic investments, the work of several of our partners, and our support of Community Wide Initiatives, our investments touch all 107 neighbourhoods across Ottawa.

In 2014-15, $12.6 million was invested in front-line programs, Community-Wide Initiatives (CWIs), Targeted Community Investment (TCIs) and other convening, engagement and research that support United Way’s work under its three focus areas: Growing Up Great, Belonging to Community and Turning Lives Around.

We supported more than 100 front-line programs that help children grow up great, help more people including seniors and people with disabilities belong to their community and helped youth who face addictions, mental health issues and homelessness turn their lives around.

6533 new donors invested in United Way’s work to help change lives.

More than 530 people pledged their names to show support to help end youth homelessness in Ottawa. These supporters showed that they want to see people like Nathan and 1,400 other youth get off the streets for good.

At our campaign launch, donors raised more than $12,335 to help purchase laptops for 15 Homework Clubs.

The Employment Accessibility Resource Network held its first-ever career fair where 150 job seekers attended.

More than 100 leaders from business and government attended our partner Hire Immigrants Ottawa's (HIO) annual Employers' Summit. The Summit is HIO's signature event and allows participants to exchange ideas and discuss the importance of integrating immigrants into Ottawa's labour force.

At the summit, HIO recognized four employers who are doing outstanding work to help attract and retain skilled immigrants including Business Development Bank of Canada, Epocal, the Ottawa Catholic School Board and Pinecrest-Queensway Community Health Centre.

Make the right call.

2-1-1 DAY

In 2013, our partner 211 answered 45,257 calls from Ottawa residents. The 211 service provides referral to services including health and social programs and services.

34 community builders were honoured and their names were placed on the Wall of Inspiration at City Hall. These people and organizations were presented with surprise Community Builder Awards (CBAs) in 2014. Recipients now join the more than 750 other community builders who have been honoured on the Wall of Inspiration since 2000.

In 2014, Hydro Ottawa and United Way Ottawa announced funding for 10 local frontline agencies to make needed capital improvements to cut their energy use. Hydro Ottawa's Brighter Tomorrows Fund helps agencies serving people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness reduce operating costs so that more dollars can be directed into programs for people in need. More than $132,000 from the Brighter Tomorrows Fund and nearly $37,000 in Ontario Power Authority incentives were awarded.

Thanks to donors,
almost 57,000 lives
will be changed in the coming year.
